The CREW has been stompin' into the hearts of people across the San Diego community for years. This exhilarating performance, which emphasizes leading a positive and healthy lifestyle by demonstrating hobbies as anti-drugs, has energized and impacted audiences all around. Chris Rubio, director and choreographer, currently travels both nationally and internationally with the off-Broadway show STOMP.

The CREW has had continued success in the school and community environments, and are available year-round to bring their powerfully entertaining performances to your stage.
