

The CREW has been stompin' into the hearts of people across the San Diego community for years. This exhilarating performance, which emphasizes leading a positive and healthy lifestyle by demonstrating hobbies as anti-drugs, has energized and impacted audiences all around. Chris Rubio is the director and choreographer of this group of famed performers.

The CREW has had continued success in the school and community environments, and are available year-round to bring their powerfully entertaining performances to your event. For further information or to book the CREW
